«The only salvation for civilisation and human species lays in the institution of a worldwide government, so that nations' security may be based on law». Albert Einstein.

An organised small group formed by some of the richest and most powerful persons of the planet controls banks and media, by means of which these persons manage to dominate political, economic and financial systems.

After having tried out all the ways they could make their candidates win and having determined the political choices of the democratic countries, this group understood that what's needed in order to keep dominating the planet isn't a world government but lots of formally independent and democratic states undergoing the hegemony of one only state. This is the only reason democracy is wanted to be spread. It's sad but that's the way it is.

And as for centuries they have fomented wars, while they officially were organising peace conferences, now they officially promote the planetary diffusion of a formal democracy they think they can control and in the mean time they organise that world empire useful to them to dominate peoples and states.

According to this group of persons, all the peoples of the planet will have to believe they are living in democracy and freedom even if it will only be appearance. The satisfaction culture and new myths, dogmas and rules will be used as a lever in order to obtain the masses' consent and repress any rebellion. Ipse dixit.

The Republic of the Earth is the only possible alternative: a world government directly elected by the inhabitants of the planet by universal suffrage and single, free and secret vote; a government without state, with the authority rising directly from the peoples in order to redistribute wealth equally and assure freedom, democracy, justice, development, solidarity and above all security and peace on the entire planet.

The election has to take place in a condition of absolute equality of resources and means. In order to avoid the repeating of the existent, the electors shall be informed correctly about all the candidates and their proposals. It's the only way the elected persons can represent legitimately the peoples sovereignty

To achieve pacifically this alternative, the Republic of the Earth faces that group that wants the empire by using some of the same means. Beginning
